Dear Mrs. Manley:-

Unfortunately, your advertisement arrived too late to insert in today's paper. We will publish your advertisement on our sporting page tomorrow and change the copy to read "tonight at 8:45 P.M."

We would greatly appreciate it, if, in the future, you would address all advertising copy to the writer. Your copy, scheduled today, unfortunately went to our sporting department. It was not delivered to the publication desk until late this morning.

Very truly yours,
